

Provide an unforgettable experience for your audiences with the internationally acclaimed Colorado Children's Chorale.

Your audience will thank you for presenting the youthful exuberance and artistic excellence of the Colorado Children's Chorale.

The Chorale is available for local, national or international performances:

Concerts

The Chorale's 90-minute community concerts delight audiences of all ages. Featuring works commissioned especially for the Children's Chorale and an eclectic mix of musical theater, classical, folk and international music, as well as the Chorale's vibrant choreography, the concerts have audiences on their feet by the end of the performance.

"As to the artistic quality of the performance, the Colorado Children's Chorale is without rival among its peers."

—Marin Alsop, Music Director,
Colorado Symphony Orchestra

"An example of what can be achieved by a combination of magnificent presence with artistic excellence."

—Columbia Artists Management

Residencies

The Children's Chorale provides residencies tailored to meet the needs of your community. The residency may include a workshop designed for local children, concerts designed for elementary students, and a 90-minute community concert with the option to feature local children. Your community will thank you for bringing the unmatched sounds of the Children's Chorale to your venue.

"Fantastic kids ... great staff ... and a performance that more than earned the two standing ovations we gave them last night. Kudos and many, many thanks to the Colorado Children's Chorale for an absolutely wonderful experience!"

—Karen Neuforth, Executive Director
Barton County Arts Council, Great Bend, Kan.

Conventions, special events and private parties

With the flexibility to provide up to 60 minutes of entertainment, the Colorado Children's Chorale will engage your audience with vibrant choreography and compelling music. Choirs range from 36 to more than 100 voices, and we will work with you to determine the best program for your event.

“What a wonderful presentation the Colorado Children's Chorale provided during the ISPA Industry Breakfast at the Colorado Convention Center. The program was full of energy and excitement and was the perfect opening for our event.”

—Debra Sutton, Marketing and Communications Director
International Sleep Products Association

“Words can't express how delighted we were with the Chorale's performance at our Department of Defense Banquet. There was not a dry eye in the house and the attendees gave the children a standing ovation after completing a beautiful performance. We were extremely impressed with the manners and discipline displayed by each child as well as the precise choreography within the songs. The performance exceeded our every expectation!”

—Elizabeth Porter, EP Productions

Collaborations with opera companies and symphony orchestras

The Colorado Children's Chorale can provide a soloist, small ensemble or full choir for opera and symphony performances anywhere in the world.

“The effect of these young artists on the public has always been sensational ... without a doubt the best youth chorus in the United States, and a clear competitor to such renowned groups as the Vienna Choirboys.”

—Nathaniel Merrill, Founding Artistic Director, Opera Colorado

“I wanted to send a note of thanks for your wonderful singing in our Midsummer Night's Dream. You have a perfect balance of enthusiasm and professional discipline, and I was thrilled by your responsiveness and musicianship. It was also clear from the post-concert discussions I had with members of the audience that they feel immensely proud of you—they know they have in their city one of the best children's choruses in the world.”

—Maestro Paul Mann, Guest Conductor, Colorado Symphony Orchestra

School concerts—“Kids Performing for Kids”

These 45-minute concerts for grades K–6 combine the infectious enthusiasm of the Children’s Chorale with lots of audience participation. School concerts are perfect for small or large audiences.

“The Children’s Chorale was a hit. The singers were so professional, so talented, so engaging. Our audience was rapt and our teachers thrilled. Host parents are reporting what delightful guests they had in their homes. Please reach out to us again if you ever plan a trip to Florida; you can count on us as a stop on your tour. Many thanks.”

—Laurie Mansfield, Caloosa Elementary, Cape Coral, Fla.

Student workshops—“Kids Reaching and Teaching Kids”

Students explore all aspects of performance, including singing, dancing, acting and stage movement. This 45-minute musical workshop provides lots of group interaction and, by emphasizing poise and self-confidence, gives students a feeling for their individual capabilities and potential.

“Your staff and talented singers made quite an impact on our students. The workshop was extremely exciting and was well planned, focused and fun. The highlight was the performance by the Children’s Chorale! The children were well rehearsed, energetic delightful and sang beautifully. It was great for my students to see the results of hard work with singers using well-taught skills. The Limon students will remember this experience for many years to come.”

- Cindy McCallum, Music Teacher, Limon, Colo.
