SHOW SYNOPSIS

In the Raggs LIVE Dance Party, the five canine members of The Raggs Band (Raggs, Trilby, Pido, B. Max and Razzles) each teach the audience their special two-step movement featured in a favorite song. B. Max's Dance-O-Meter, a giant interactive machine with an appetite, rates the dances (all winners, of course!) and a tie is broken when the pups combine the dances into one super, mega-dance! A human emcee named Roadie keeps things moving along! Larger shows also feature supporting dancers.
